APRIL 28, 2019

Psalm 32:1-11

Have Mercy: My Sin: Covered or Concealed

Speaker: Josh Weidmann

Psalm 32 gives us an initiation to stop concealing our sin and find joy in being covered by God's mercy. We all need to honestly evaluate our heart and ask: am I continually trying to "conceal" my sin, or do I see my sin as "covered" by the mercy of God?

THIS WEEK:

- ☐ Study Genesis 3 and identify what specific ways Adam and Eve committed the sin of pride and self-sufficiency.
- ☐ Pray and ask God to convict me of where I am may be "concealing" my sin.
- ☐ Jesus said, "Apart from me you can do nothing" (John 15:5); evaluate where I am trying do things on my own without Jesus.
- ☐ Meditate and pray through Psalm 32.

DISCUSSION

READ PSALM 32

- ☐ What are some of the reasons we might have a tendency to conceal our sin?
- ☐ How does a person's view of who God is affect their willingness to confess sin?
- ☐ What have you found to be the consequences of concealing sin?
- ☐ As you look back over Psalm 32, how are you encouraged or challenged?
- ☐ Read Genesis 3. What do we learn about the human condition and God's heart?
- ☐ Describe what repentance is, regarding sin, God, and even joy.