

Believing that something good can come out of something bad

BOTTOM LINE: Whatever happens, remember God is bigger than your questions.

John 20:19-20

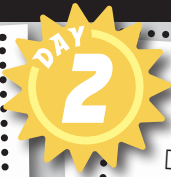

Blind Trust

Grab a friend you can trust and a blindfold. Between the two of you decide who will be blindfolded and who will do the leading. The object of this activity is for the director to lead the blindfolded person safely to a chair to sit in. The catch is: the blindfolded person CANNOT feel for the chair, they just need to sit.

Spin your blindfolded friend around a few times, let them get situated, and then start directing them where to go so they can sit down. Do this a few times by taking turns being the director. Feel free to move the chair around the room once they are blindfolded!

KNOW that, although you cannot see Jesus in person, you can know that He cares for you by what He did for you.

Questions Please!

Do you ever feel like asking God a question?

Take some time and write down some questions that you have for God or draw a picture to explain your questions. Then, take some time to talk to Him and ask Him some of your questions. You probably won't be able to literally hear Him answer your questions, but look for the answers around you throughout the week! Your questions can be answered in the Bible, in other great books, or even by some smart people around you!

LOOK for the answers to your questions by talking to God and others who know about Him!

He's ALIVE!

With the help of an adult go to a Bible online or open a Bible app. Search for John 20:19-20 and listen to the verses being read to you! After listening, answer the questions below (there are no right or wrong answers).

- How do you think the disciples felt when they saw Jesus after He died?
- Who would be the first person you told after you saw Jesus?
- How do you know Jesus is alive today?

ASK others how they know Jesus is alive!

God, Show Me

It's hard to have faith in someone who you don't get to see every day, but God can be the exception to that! He sent His Son, Jesus, to be seen by so many people, to be killed, and then to rise again. People have been talking about it ever since! The best part of this whole thing is that you can talk to God all day, every day! Spend time talking to Him right now! You can pray something like this:

"Dear God, I want to thank You so much for all You do for me. I am so thankful that You sent Your own Son to come to earth to give us an example of who You are. God, I pray that You can continue to show me who You are and what You can do in my life. Thank You for all that I am and have from You. Amen."

THANK God for caring enough about you to send His Son to cover your sins.
