

2019 Summer Bible Study Content

28th May – Linda Shoaff

The Bible - inspired by God and written by around 40 diverse writers over a span of 1500 years. How does it all fit together with such harmony? We'll look at the relationship between the Old and New Testaments, tie together the various books in each, and hopefully learn why each book is important in learning about our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

4th June – Courtenay Atwell

Tips on how to study the Bible. Do you long to know God more? There is no better way to know Him than by learning His Word. Join us for practical steps on how to study the Bible for yourself. Where to begin? What to look for? Studies have shown that we learn more when we enter into the process of discovery for ourselves, so bring your colored pencils and be ready to see how much you can pull out of a passage on your own.

11th June – Krista Jesse

Every woman has a beautiful story to tell. On June 11th we will enjoy an evening of reflection on our personal stories and journeys with the Lord. I will be sharing my story of a life transformed and the process of living in bondage and having no voice to experiencing freedom and personal revival through prayer. We will spend time encouraging one another in our walk with the Lord and praying for personal revival.

18th June – Lina Gage

The Daily Practice of the Beatitudes (the blessings listed by Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount (Matt. 5:3–11)).

How to practice daily living of the beatitudes, the very first teaching of the sermon on the mount. The importance and priority of focusing on our inner lives.

25th June – Lina Gage

How to reach people who come from different faith and value backgrounds. Learning how to build bridges and reach out to a neighbor, coworker or friend that has a different faith or value than ours.

9th of July – Krista Jesse

Luke 19:10 says “ For the son of man came to seek and save those who are lost.” As we look around our communities and world today, this statement may seem overwhelming. We only have to step out of our front door to encounter people who do not know the love of Jesus and are lost. On July 9th we will dive into God’s love for the lost and journey through the work that God is doing around the world. I will share inspiring stories of ways the gospel is spreading with power in persecuted Christian nations and we will spend time praying for our brothers and sisters who are risking their lives for Jesus.
