Daniel 7:1-28

Thy Kingdom Come: His Victory, My Security

Speaker: Josh Weidmann

The Gospel proclaims that through Christ people can experience true satisfaction, deep joy, and certain security. Trusting Christ reorients our soul around its true axis and then puts the trials and insecurities of earthly life into their proper eternal perspective.

THIS WEEK:

- Write down what I am worried about or insecure in, and then list where God can help me in these areas.
- Memorize Philippians 4:6 and pray it to the Lord, asking Him to calm my anxiety
- Post on social media a statement about why I have joy knowing I am in Christ's Kingdom now and even more fully in the future.

DISCUSSION

to come?

Read Daniel 8:1-27. What images stand out to you and how do you read what is being conveyed by those images?
Why might God choose to use symbolic language instead of literal language when talking about future things?
When it comes to apocalyptic passages in Scripture, what are the dangers of over-interpreting and what are the dangers of under-interpreting (or taking it too seriously or not seriously enough)?
In what ways are you worried or not worried about the future?
What does God want us to know about Himself, and His involvement in our lives, and the what is

Read Revelation 12:6. How might this help us in our understanding of this passage?
```

Read Philippians 4:6. How does understanding glimpse of the future and God's involvement calm your fears?

Do you want to know more, less, or the same about the future, and why?
